Visitation will be at 9:00 A.M. and funeral at 10:00 A.M.. A luncheon will follow and parish members are asked to provide desserts for the luncheon. Please remember Frank and his family in your prayers.

Eucharistic Ministry to the St. Leonard's Homebound community.

Many members of the Eucharistic Ministry Committee have expressed a willingness and desire to serve communion to the SLPM homebound parishioners. To make this happen, we need to have an accurate list of who wants to be part of this ministry. So, if you are currently part of the Eucharistic Committee, or if you want to participate in the Homebound piece, please send a message to Katie McBride at: 612-825-7569 or at: kmcb2006@comcast.net so she can make out a schedule. The council will provide the pyx and the training. Once we have the list, we will have a commissioning ceremony after Mass for all Eucharistic Ministers. Fr. Leo has also said that he would like to do an Anointing of the Sick for anyone who is sick or preparing for surgery after Mass whenever it is requested.

Parishioners in Need: St Leonard's has a ministry that sends get well or sympathy cards in the name of the St. Leonard community to people who are experiencing health issues, loss or other difficulties in their lives. Please send the names of people in need of prayers and support to Maryellen: slpm3949@msn.org or leave a message on the parish phone: 612-825-5811. Also, Father Leo has requested that you let him know anytime a parishioner is hospitalized.

Loaves and Fishes: The Parish Pastoral Council believes in the ministry of the Loaves and Fishes and commends those who have been serving food to the poor for over thirty-five years. The management of Loaves and Fishes is short of funds, and have asked the participating parishes to partner with one another and share the cost of serving on our one day a month ministry. St Francis Cabrini is willing to share the expense with us and will pay $250/month for their part. St. Leonard's is currently not solvent enough to bear this expense, so we are asking you to help. The Outreach committee is currently working on a sustainable plan to raise $250 a month to financially support this ministry. Please think about what you can donate over and above your weekly contribution over the next year and watch for our fundraising plan. Thank you.

2017 Annual Seder Meal will be held April 12, 2017 at 6:00P.M. If you are available and are planning to attend please sign-up on the sheets in the back of church so we have an idea of how many may attend. A free will donation of $5.00 per person would be appreciated to cover costs. Any questions please contact Ed Howard at 612-532-9159.

Thank You TRUST Meals on Wheels Volunteers TRUST wants to extend a special "Thank you!" to the TRUST congregations and especially to their Meals on Wheels volunteers who make our program possible. #### 4th Sunday of Lent - Fr. Leo

There seems to be an apparent contradiction in our first reading from Samuel. We first are told not to judge by appearance or someone's lofty stature, for God sees into the heart. Then, when David is found he is said to be "a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance. So which is it? What is this "appearance" that is good and which is not good? For me, God must have seen in David a man of integrity and a good heart though not perfect. David was a sinner, but at the same time, by the grace of God, a man who allowed God's Truth to direct him in his mind and heart.

In the gospel today from John, the behavior of the blind man's parents makes me think about how keeping up a certain "appearance" can bring us to act against the call to love. When asked if their son was blind from birth, they answered, "Yes." When asked how he can now see, they distance themselves from their own son and instead of supporting him, say, "ask him, he is of age, he can speak for himself." It was so important that they fit in and be accepted by society as then structured, that they threw their own son under the bus.

The son lives with integrity. He simply and honestly explains what happened and gives his opinion when asked, that Jesus must be a man of God, a prophet. Then, the truth he proclaims threatens the Pharisees who have to demonize him and say he was born in sin. Jesus denies the man's sinfulness and confronts the Pharisees with their own blindness to truth and ultimately to God in him.

Each of us is called to live with integrity. This means we won't be conformist to external pressures, but that we will be our own unique self. Even if these pressures "appear" real from society and even the Church, we will listen from the truth within us and trust that the Spirit within, the God within, will help us live out our truth and not someone else's.

When we find our true self, we don't find someone totally independent and apart from others, but one who is a person in relationship with others, with the courage to live as God calls them to live. This person also knows that others are called to their own truth as well, and does not claim that his or her truth must be someone else's. Differences are embraced by all, as possible teachers to a deeper truth not yet recognized and lived.

Let us strive to know in our hearts the real Christ, and be faithful to our real-selves. Let us try to live with integrity. This road will bring the pain of letting go of our false-selves, but also the joy that only living God's truth can bring. For this let us pray for one another and for all humanity.

A Sunday Early Evening Study Series

“White Privilege; Let’s Talk”

Linden Hills UCC, 4200 Sheridan Ave So, Minneapolis

All are invited to attend

Sundays, March 26 and April 2 (5:00 – 6:30 pm)

This series will take its shape from the United Church of Christ’s “White Privilege: Let’s Talk” curriculum. We will start by reflecting upon our Spiritual Autobiographies through the lens of race, along seeking other perspectives by reading spiritual autobiographies from writers of several races. We will consider the racial history of the twin cities area, including facets that have not been a standard part of school curriculum, so may be new to many of us. We’ll also look at the phenomena of norming and stereotype threat, and be introduced to critical race theory as a framework for analyzing racial incidents large and small. All the while we will endeavor to build a space of trustworthy listening for each other and practice mindful communication skills.

Immigration: Moving from Political Rhetoric to the Moral Discourse of Pope Francis

A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day: For more than a year politicians have been talking about the “problem of immigration” and how the United States needs to develop more effective ways of preventing undocumented persons from entering our nation, especially those crossing our southern border. Most of these discussions took place within the context of presidential election politics and were not particularly marked by attention to facts or compassion. In contrast, Pope Francis never tires of embracing immigrants and refugees, and of modeling the biblical call to welcome the stranger. The Holy Father challenges us as individuals and as a nation to think more deeply and more religiously about our relationship to persons having to leave their homes for economic, political or security reasons. April 6th, check-in from 6:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and presentation from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., Pax Christi Church, Eden Prairie. Free event. Light refreshments provided. Registration is required: www.csbsju.edu/sot/theology-day, 320-363-3560 or sot-sem@csbsju.edu

Power, Control, & Pluralism: Being Church in a Secular Age

A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day

What is the church's place in an increasingly secular, pluralistic society? Is it our mission to be in control as a way to advance the kingdom of God? If not, how do we bring about just, humane structures and policies in society? To address such questions we will engage in a theological reflection on power and its relation to love and control. Our reflection will be informed by the character of God's power as revealed in Scripture and the person of Christ. It will also consider Vatican II's Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, Decree on Religious Liberty, the example of Pope Francis, and the exercise of power in the church. Mar. 30th, check-in from 6:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and presentation from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., Basilica of Saint Mary, Minneapolis, MN. Free event. Light refreshments provided. Registration is required: www.csbsju.edu/sot/theology-day, 320-363-3560 or sot-sem@csbsju.edu.
